

Academic Writing with Specialised Theory and Method, Autumn Term 2019

Course codes: 711G41

COURSE GUIDE

The Course Structure

The course consists of two main parts: writing a Term Paper on either a language or literary subject and a course module in Language and Literary Method and Theory. The latter is also a thesis-writing course aimed at supporting the writing of the term paper, as well as a future thesis in the subject English.

What Is Compulsory?

All written (including written preparations, take-home assignments and the term paper) and oral assignments are compulsory. Note that compulsory submitted written work (e.g. take-home assignments, preparatory notes and your term paper) is to be sent to your teacher/examiner via Urkund<sup>1</sup>.

Attendance and active participation is compulsory for all seminars<sup>2</sup>.

The following provides a more detailed breakdown of course components:

<sup>1</sup> If you submit work through the submissions app in Lisam, this will be done automatically by your teacher/examiner.

<sup>2</sup> This means a minimum attendance requirement of 80% with make-up assignments to compensate for the seminar(s) you have missed.

Term Paper

Teachers: Emile Farmer & Elin Käck; supervisors are decided according to selected thesis topics

Teaching: term paper supervision with supporting seminars in either language or literature

Examination: a written term paper as well as active participation (with preparations) in either language or literature seminars (introductions).

Literary & Linguistic Theory & Method, 5 hp

Teachers: Nigel Musk & Anna Watz

Teaching: introductory lecture (literature) and seminars.

Examination: compulsory attendance and prepared oral participation in seminars. Attendance at two higher seminars (or equivalent) is also required.

The grading criteria for each course module can be found in Lisam.
