English 1: Course Guide

Course Structure

The course consists of three main blocks:

- English Language Proficiency
- The English Language in Theory and Practice
- Modern English Literature

However, the three run in parallel and are designed to support and reinforce each other.

What Is Compulsory?

All exams, both written (including take-home exams) and oral, are compulsory. In addition, there are a number of oral and hand-in written assignments. Note that written assignments (e.g. take-home exams and sometimes text notes) must be sent via Urkund/Ouriginal or Lisam.

Generally, attendance and active participation in seminars is compulsory, whereas attendance in lectures is strictly speaking optional (though strongly recommended).

The following provides a more detailed breakdown of what is compulsory:

English Language Proficiency (Engelsk språkfärdighet)

English Grammar: active participation in seminars (at least 80% attendance = 8/10)

Language Proficiency Exam 1 (grammar & vocabulary)

Written English: active participation in seminars (at least 80% attendance = 7/9) as well as written hand-in assignments. Preparatory work before each seminar is compulsory and must be brought to class.

Language Proficiency Exam 2 (translation & essay writing)

The English Language in Theory and Practice (Engelska språket i teori och praktik)

General Grammar: written exam

Pronunciation: pronunciation test

Oral Presentation: presentation and compulsory seminar attendance

Language Studies: written exam

Modern English Literature (Modern engelsk litteratur)

Compulsory seminar attendance, take-home exam(s) and literary essay(s).

Grading Criteria

Below follows an overview of the grading criteria for the various course modules. How – exactly – these are tested can be seen in the overview of the Ladok codes at the end of the on-line syllabus, and more detailed information will also be provided by the respective teachers/course material.
