English for Teachers 61-75 credits (9AEN59) Autumn Term 2024

Dear prospective student,

We would like to send you a warm welcome to English 61-75 credits!

The introduction to the course is currently planned to take place on Tues 20 August at 13.15-14 in Ellen in the Key Building.

You will find the timetable in TimeEdit with the help of your course code closer to the beginning of term (<https://cloud.timeedit.net/liu/web/schema/>). It will be made available on 1 July.

For information about your course, go to <https://liu.se/studieinfo/> and click on “kurs” and enter your course code (see above). Select the correct term/semester in the box “kursstart”. Note that other important documents (e.g. the course reading list, and the course guide) will be made available via the tab “övriga dokument”. We also post information about the course in the university’s web-based learning platform, Lisam, e.g. the reading list, the course guide and the timetable.

The most urgent thing to have organised before the new term starts is that you get hold of the course book for the course in Pedagogical Grammar:

Willis, Dave & Willis, Jane (2007) Doing Task-based Teaching. Oxford: Oxford University Press

By the first lecture/seminar, which comes only two days after the course introduction, you will be expected to have read at least chapters 1-3. This will be difficult unless you have got hold of the book beforehand.

In case you wish to begin your preparations over the summer break, the first book for the literature course, Literary Experimentation will be:

Jack Kerouac, On the Road (1957)

(Most versions are fine but not the original scroll version. Avoid also abridged versions, easy readers and audio books)

Otherwise, refer to the course reading list for the remaining books for the autumn term.

N.B. Please note that everyone who has applied for the course has received this letter, but it doesn't guarantee that you are eligible to start the course, since you also have to fulfil the entrance requirements. Also, I request that if you cannot attend the introduction or decide not to take your place, please send me an email as soon as possible.

We look forward to seeing you at the introduction.
Best wishes,

Nigel Musk, Course Tutor
