Reading list for Project Course 1 - Construction and Digitalization, TNBJ35, 2024

Other

As the digitalization of construction is under constant development, the course literature consists of:

- Articles via the library's databases (reading list is distributed at the beginning of each course start)
- Digitally distributed material such as Power Point slides, etc.
- Websites, blogs and podcasts about the digitalization of construction (recommendation is given at the beginning of each course start)

- Articles and reports via the library's databases (reading list is distributed at the beginning of each course start)
- Digitally distributed material such as Power Point images, etc.
- Websites, blogs and podcasts (recommendation is given at the beginning of each course start)