

Negotiation and Conflict

Single subject and programme course

15 credits

Samförstånd och konflikt, fördjupning

740G19

Valid from:

Determined by

The Quality Board at the Faculty of Arts and Sciences

Date determined

2007-06-18

Main field of study

Social and Culture Analysis

Course level

First cycle

Advancement level

G2X

Course offered for

- Bachelor´s Programme in Social and Cultural Analysis

Entry requirements

At least 105 passed credits from the program in Social and Cultural Analysis, or equivalent. Documented knowledge of English equivalent to Engelska B/Engelska 6.

Intended learning outcomes

After the course the student should be able to

- analyse complex relations of negotiation and conflict in a global perspective
- formulate research problems
- use methodological competence – mainly text analysis -within the framework of the course

Course content

The course treats negotiation and conflict in a national and international perspective. The basic concepts are scrutinised and theoretical perspectives from different fields of research is introduced and discussed. Within the frames of international relations historical and contemporary prerequisites for war but also consensus and cooperation are discussed. The questions of the course emanates from the relation between development on the national and international level where Swedish processes is related to a global perspective. Comprehensive tendencies in contemporary international and Swedish development is analysed, for instance in terms of national and ethnic conflict.

Teaching and working methods

The teaching is based on student active workforms. Lectures, individual and groupwise practices and supervision are the dominating forms of teaching. If international exchange students participate in the course, lectures and some seminars are given in English. Undervisning sker därmed exempelvis genom föreläsningar, individuella och gruppvisa övningar samt handledning.

Examination

Examinations are both oral and written. Oral examination in presentations of group examination assignments and participating in discussions. Written examination by both individual and group assignments. The course is examined in several parts, to pass the course the students have to pass all these parts.

Students failing an exam covering either the entire course or part of the course twice are entitled to have a new examiner appointed for the reexamination.

Students who have passed an examination may not retake it in order to improve their grades.

Grades

Three-grade scale, U, G, VG

Other information

Planning and implementation of a course must take its starting point in the wording of the syllabus. The course evaluation included in each course must therefore take up the question how well the course agrees with the syllabus.

The course is carried out in such a way that both men's and women's experience and knowledge is made visible and developed.

Department

Institutionen för samhälls- och välfärdsstudier