Intended learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the student will be able to show rudimentary knowledge of both artistic interpretation and aesthetic expression in education.

Course content

The students will get possibilities to work with different aesthetic expressions and artistic methods, such as drama, fine arts and music that can be used especially in pre- and elementary schools.

The students will work in group and plan, rehearse, perform and then evaluate some kind of performance where different aesthetic expressions are combined.

Each student will by photos and words document his/her and the group's work with aesthetic expressions and artistic methods.

Teaching and working methods

As the course is based on active participation and laborative work by the students, high attendance at the classes are important. Between the classes, the students are expected to read the course literature and to prepare various tasks.

The course is examined through active participation in compulsory classes and through a performance where different aesthetic expressions are combined and also through an individually written portfolio that also includes documentation with photos.
